To the full extent permitted by South Dakota law, no Member of the Limited Liability Company shall be liable to the Limited Liability Company or the other Members for monetary damages for an act or omission in such Member's capacity as a Member of the Limited Liability Company, except that this Article does not eliminate or limit the Liability of a Member to the extent the Member is found liable for (i) a breach of the Member's duty of loyalty to the Company or its Members; (ii) an act or omission not in good faith that constitutes a breach of duty of the Member to the Company or an act or omission that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
